

Introduction

A+ Education is an indexing and full text database that provides online access to journal articles from publications on all aspects of education. It is based on the Australian Education Index. Subject coverage includes curriculum, educational research, information science, librarianship, management, policy administration, psychology, sociology, teaching and training.

Access: <http://libservy.nie.edu.sg/login.php?url=http://search.informit.com.au/>

1. Searching for Keywords

The screenshot shows the search interface with several callouts:

- Select record display view: Points to the 'Search Results' tab.
- Perform a guided or standard search: Points to the 'Search' tab.
- Type in search term or phrase: Points to the search input field containing 'singapore'.
- Click to add another field for searching: Points to the 'AND' dropdown menu.
- Limit or expand your search by specifying year(s) of publication: Points to the 'Date Range' field set to '2004 to 2012'.
- View search history: Points to the 'Recent Results' table.

The search results table shows the following data:

Query	Recs
#2 (curriculum in schools)	40
#1 (current affairs)	42

2. Managing Results

The screenshot shows a search results page with the following elements and annotations:

- Sort options: A menu at the top allows sorting by Date (newest/oldest), Author, Article Title, Publication Title, or Database. An annotation box points to this menu with the text: "Sort results by date/author/article title".
- Action buttons: For each result, there are buttons for "Citation", "Save", "Print", "Email", and "FullText @NIE". An annotation box points to these buttons with the text: "Click on the box(es), then click Save, Print or Email".
- Library holdings: A "Full Text PDF" icon and "Browse Issue" link are present for the third result. An annotation box points to this area with the text: "Check library holdings".
- Search interface: The right side shows the search query "singapore" and various filters like "AND", "national education", and "Date Range: 2004 to 2012".

3. Browsing Publications

The screenshot shows a publication browsing interface with the following elements and annotations:

- Navigation: A "Titles" tab is selected at the top. An annotation box points to it with the text: "To browse publications, click 'Titles' tab".
- Subject Selection: A "Subjects" menu is open, showing various subject areas like "Arts", "Business", "Education", etc. An annotation box points to this menu with the text: "Browse by subject of publication".
- Journal List: A list of journals is displayed in alphabetical order. An annotation box points to the list with the text: "Browse journal titles in alphabetical order".
- Subject Selection: A specific subject area, "Education", is selected. An annotation box points to this selection with the text: "Select a subject area to browse journals specialising in the subject".
- Full Text Availability: A green "F" icon indicates that full text is available for a specific journal issue. An annotation box points to this icon with the text: "Indicates full text is available in the journal".

4. Accessing Table of Contents and Full Articles

Click on journal title to browse

Select volume & issue no

Click on article title to read its abstract & retrieve its full text

Getting Help

Please contact the Reference Services at libref@nie.edu.sg or call 6790-3623, 6790-3631 or 6219-6115.

Maintained by : Seri Banun
Last modified date: 10 Apr 2012